

Order of Merit Hots Up

Royston Golf Club was the venue for the 6th qualifying event of the year & was also the penultimate event for the 2009 Order of Merit. The conditions at Royston were overcast with some blustery winds, the course was also quite challenging where, in some places the rough had been allowed to grow quite thick.

This however did not stop some exceptional scores being carded, the format was Bogey (Match play against the course) & 9 of the 16 players taking part actually beat the course.

Some surprising scores from the front runners in this year's events so far means that the final event in the Order of Merit at Stevenage in October will be a close run thing with 5 player's still in with a chance of winning.

The qualifying for next year's Sheriff's & Intoto Cups has also been made a closer run thing due to the scoring at Royston.

The result was as follows:

Winner: Darren Smith

Runner Up: Liam Jeffries

21+ Handicap Winner: Sean Commerford

NTP on 6: Alan Hills

NTP on 10: Liam Jeffries
